THREE DAYS & THREE NIGHTS

7/20/10 Title only.
5/19/14 Began writing: references are Jonah 1:17, First Samuel 30:12, and Matthew 12:40.
6/03/14 Finished the 'final-final' edits after much 'polish' at 10:45 pm.
6/04/14 Never say never "...finished!"
6/05/14 "Finished!?" (...this is never going to get finished.)
6/10/14 Feel good about the over-all flow of the text, however...
6/10/14 The most challenging 'parable' to 'rightly divide'.
6/14/14 Really really finished! Time to climb new mountains. Or do nothing.
7/08/14 Final subtle changes. Paragraph titles revised as a help to the readers.
7/09/14 Final Final subtle changes. Now it's really really.
8/24/14 Page 3: two corrections of "...the sixth hour" corrected to "...the seventh hour"
8/24/14 Reformatted with last minute adjustments. Now really really finished! I hope.
8/25/14 Now it's really finished. Yes. Now. 6:00 pm. No it's not.
8/28/14 Another review with subtle rewrites and one or two word changes...
8/29/14 ...and one or two more 'little others'.
8/30/14 It has to be finished. No. Never again "another!?"
8/31/14 It's now finished. Maybe. 8/31/14 12:30 AM. Will check it out later.
9/23/14 It should be really really finished. I hope. Will review, reread, reflect.
9/26/14 On a huge learning curve 'adjusting unto perfection' when there is nothing left.
9/30/14 Playing around with subtle format issues. Just looking at the document:
10/3/14 "...line upon line...precept upon precept...here a little...there a little."
10/7/14 Is it possible a hologram be explained with words? I don't think so.
10/12/14 Discoveries captured. Hope tomorrow brings more.
10/17/14 My efforts end to 'really finish' the parable of "Three Days & Three Nights".
10/20/14 3D & 3N attempts to use written words to 'capture' a hologram.
10/31/14 May the breath of God be your updraft! and may you soar with the wings of Eagles!
11/30/14 Found a little typo on page two, third paragraph: quote mark after 'Jesus' misplaced.

"But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken." Is. 28:13

TCAT_THREE DAYS & THREE NIGHTS

Email sent to Robert Nova on Sunday 5.18.14 at 6:30 am:

Bob, on 7/20/2010 I created a folder entitled TCAT_3 Days & 3 Nights. The folder then remained empty until I created this Quark file and saved it into the folder on the 25th of September 2014 and began writing. I have now reconstructed the timeline of the "three days" and the timeline of the "three nights" in TCAT_Three Days & Three Nights; grateful that I was able to shoulder aside my cognitive impairment while formulating the core issues. So allow me to finalize my thoughts on the subject and tomorrow I hope to begin in earnest to proof and polish the document. I have no idea how long it will take to complete the task. Regardless it feels good to be engaged to write. Bill

A "day" is when "light" is present and not a period of time.
A "night" is when "light" is not present and not a period of time.

THE DECLARATION OF THE APOSTLES

ACCORDING TO WILLIAM

#1528

Now from the sixth hour

there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

(Matt 27:45)

And when the sixth hour was come,
there was darkness over all the earth
until the ninth hour.

(Mark 15:33)

And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened...

(Luke 23:44-45)

THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST & THE GOSPEL OF GOD

ACCORDING TO WILLIAM

PARAGRAPH #1528/MATT 27:45; MARK 15:33; LUKE 23:44-45

"Now it was about the sixth hour: and from when the sixth hour was come, there was a darkness over all the whole earth until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst."

Notice that unlike Matt 27:45 and Mark 15:33, the wording of Luke’s 23:44-45 suggests that there was just enough time: (say a first few minutes into the seventh hour:) that a few minutes of “day” had expired before there emerged “a darkness over all the earth.” During that two, three, five minutes of ‘day’ is when Jesus releases the Spirit to return to the Father.

(The Spirit has ‘died’: the first death on the first day of the “Three Days & The Three Nights” that Christ would be in the grave. For if ‘Christ’ has died then the ‘Light’ of the world has died: and though it remain ‘day’ the world then ebbs in a spiritual darkness: the first night of the “Three Days & The Three Nights” that Christ would be in the grave.)

(The darkness that slowly arose to embalm all the earth: the second night: was in response to the first death: being the “death” of the Spirit: having vacated Jesus “when it was about the sixth hour” and returning to God before the sun was darkened.)
(Luke 23:44)

After the Spirit returned to God a darkness slowly envelopes the earth. Jesus no longer retains the power of the Spirit; but retains the grace of his own spirit: the spirit of Man. Did not Jesus say that he would lay his life/spirit down, then take it up again?

The first..... “death” would be the death...of the Spirit...of the Son...of God.
The second “death” would be the death...of the spirit...of the son....of Man.

Jesus gave up his Spirit/spirit to fulfill the prophesy that on the third day
The Son of God/the son of Man: the Son/son: the God/Man:
would rise from the dead.

A true born-again son or daughter of God has two spirits: In the born-again transformation they have had their spirit “circumcised”: (meaning, their spirit has been “cut away” from their flesh and blood: “circumcised” from the sin that dwells in their blood:) by having received a small measure of the Spirit into their soul: (in effect their souls have been separated, inoculated, leavened:) yet in the flesh sin still works the corruption of ageing, evil thoughts, foul images, dark impulses, and in the end...death.

A true born-again son or daughter of God has had their own spirit “circumcised” in the “born again” experience; which allows a small measure of the Spirit of God to be enjoined to their spirit with gifts embedded: Our boarding “Ticket” to ride Heaven’s Express: there to receive new glorified bodies of Flesh and Bone and Living Waters: made from the very substance of the Glory of The Godhead: according to the DNA of...

The Seed of Christ!

THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST
ACCORDING TO WILLIAM

And when Jesus had cried again with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.
PP #1535/Matt 27:50; Mark 15:37; Luke 23:46; John 19:30

This parable is most complex and parabolic. If Jesus is to be dead “three days and three nights” then let us count the three days and the three nights starting at high noon. It was at high noon that Jesus releases the Spirit to return to God: which constitutes his “first death”. (Did not the Lord say that he would lay his life down and then take it up?)

Then at the ninth hour the Son commends his own spirit into the hands of the Father, saying, “Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost” which constitutes his “second death”.

The Declaration Of The Apostles
ACCORDING TO WILLIAM

“And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.”

- The 1st hour begins at 6 am (5:59:60 the first hour of ‘day’ begins.)
- The 1st hour is fulfilled at 7 am (the second hour begins: seconds record seconds;
- The 2nd hour is fulfilled at 8 am (minutes record minutes; and hours record hours.)
- The 3rd hour is fulfilled at 9 am #1506/Lk 23:33; John 19:18 “...they crucified him.”
- The 4th hour is fulfilled at 10 am
- The 5th hour is fulfilled at 11am
- The 6th hour is fulfilled at 12 noon #1496/John 19:14: “...and about the sixth hour:”
- The 7th hour is fulfilled at 1 pm
- The 8th hour is fulfilled at 2 pm
- The 9th hour is fulfilled at 3 pm #1535/Matt 27:50; Mk 15:37; Lk 23:46; Jn 19:30 “Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit:
and having said thus, he bowed his head,
and gave up the ghost.”

Matt 27:45; Mark 15:33; Luke 23:44-45

as set forth in paragraph #1528 of

The Gospel of Christ & The Gospel of God
according to william

“Now it was about the sixth hour: and from when the sixth hour was come, there was a darkness over all the whole earth until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.”

- A "day" is when "light" is present and not a period of time.
- A "night" is when "light" is not present and not a period of time.

Of the "three days" and the "three nights" that Christ will be in the grave, his "first death, first day, first night, and second night" all happen within a few minutes after the sixth hour: The Spirit of God: Christ: The Light of the World: all 'die': the first death: the first day: the first night: and the second night: high noon to 3pm: from the top of the seventh hour to the end of the ninth hour: in a darkness that enshrouds all the earth.

(Again, after the Spirit is released to return to God: the first death: the day lingers for a few minutes: the first day: and then there was a 'spiritual darkness' over all the earth: the first night. The Light of the world is dead...a mute spiritual darkness now embalms all the earth from all the seventh hour unto all the ninth hour: the second night.)

(And again, after Jesus releases the Spirit a "spiritual darkness" envelopes all the earth from the sixth hour until the ninth hour: the second night. All the earth lies in darkness because Christ has 'died' and returned to God: and yet the spirit of Man remains in Jesus crucified on a stake. Jesus has retained his own spirit: he remains alive on the cross to experience the fullness of crucifixion: from a few minutes past high noon until the ninth hour: being our three pm. He will suffer alone.)

His second death occurs at the ninth hour when by an act of will Jesus "cried out again with a loud voice, saying, "Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he bowed his head and gave up the ghost." (The Declaration #1535/Luke 23:46)

The spirit of the man Jesus has returned to God. As it is written, "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it." (Eccl. 12:7)

One of the soldiers then used a spear to pierce the side of Jesus to confirm that the body was without life: blood gravity flowed: then daylight reappears for the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth hours: the second day of death.

The third night of death is fulfilled at sundown.

The third day of death is fulfilled at The Even of the seventh night and the eighth day.
(The Dec #1557/Mark 16:2; Luke 24:1)
